

WHAT IS IT?

Got a local group of Goodman Games fans? A weekly group or a larger gang of associated gamers? Why not make it official? Create your own GONGFARMER'S LOCAL Chapter and become an official part of Goodman Games fandom!

You come up with your local name and number and who your members are. Your group might be geographic (everyone who plays in the neighborhood), or it can be spread out (you play online with folks from all over the world).

Fill out your information below (it's a form-fillable PDF) and then send the completed form to: gongfarmers@goodman-games.com and we'll get you registered
